

Rachel Hassler is the Program Coordinator for the Wabash Pastoral Leadership Program and for Scroll: The Wabash Institute of Theology for Youth. She began working at Wabash College in 2015.

A fifth generation Montgomery County native and lifelong resident, Rachel and her husband Chad Hassler, together with their son, live with their two dogs in on a tiny farm nestled in the woods. The Hasslers are grateful to be part of a flourishing worshipping community at St. Stephen the First Martyr Orthodox Church (OCA) in Crawfordsville. Rachel enjoys spending time at home with her family, working in her garden and noticing tiny things, reading and writing, and learning about the natural world and life in Christ.
